Warrior Mums-Michelle Daly 2014-03-24 One of the benefits of social media is getting to meet the parents of special needs children and adults. I have grown to know and truly admire these brave people. Our solitary journeys have taken many different roads, yet we've all connected on sites like Facebook, Twitter, and other forums. The support we give each other is a lifeline—an opportunity to not only share the joys our sons and daughters bring into our lives, but also the chance to rant about the frequent injustices we meet head on. I am honoured to have 'met' so many fantastic Warrior Mums from around the world, so honoured that I decided to feature some of their stories in a blog series, which I have now reproduced in this book. These mums will inspire you, just like they have me, these brave women who share their stories from childhood to motherhood and reveal far more than they normally would, in the hope their stories will help others.

What's in a Name-Andrew Innes 2020-04-09 What's in a name, an ancient name like Innes? Ten years ago, Andrew Innes set out to trace its history, asking the age-old questions, "Who am I? And where do I come from?" Sleuthing his branch of the family back as far as possible, he discovered surprising, sometimes tangled truths. From Scotland, his engaging story moves to England and Wales, then to his father's discovery of bauxite in Jamaica, and ultimately to Canada, recounting a family's social progress over two centuries. Of special interest to Innes cousins near and far is the tantalizing tale of the Stow Succession. In the nineteenth century several branches of the Innes clan believed they had a rightful claim to the vast fortune of Jane Innes of Stow. The author's family was among them. Andrew Innes here gathers together more information on this subject than any other author he is aware of, and offers it to those who still nurture this belief. This Second Edition includes important new DNA evidence supporting the family's descent from Berowald of Halton via the Inneses of Benwall and Ardtannes. It provides a useful example of how DNA analysis in combination with well documented genealogies can bridge gaps in a family's line of descent.

Throughout the visit he sensed the evil re-emerging and, sure enough, after he left, the agent was nowhere to be found. You Can't Spend Pride-Ernie Clark, Jr. 2014-05-23 You're making a difference Your purchase of this book helps benefit cancer research. Read below for more details. "Rags to riches to rags" - that saying has endured for centuries through many cultures because family success, whether fame, fortune, or otherwise, rarely survives through the third generation. In the United States, only 30 percent of family businesses make it through the second generation, while only 12 percent make it through the third. "You Can't Spend Pride" tells the story of one family business, Mister Kleen, that has defied the odds. Not only are three generations of the family working in the company, but Mister Kleen has grown to be a multi-million-dollar operation that ranks among the top 10 percent of businesses in its industry. Narrated as a first-person account by the co-founder, Mary Ann Clark, and her son and current company president, Ernie Clark Jr., "You Can't Spend Pride" tells the improbable story of how the family built their business from cleaning one client's office in the evenings to maintaining millions of square feet of high-security and commercial space throughout the Washington, D.C. area. And success certainly didn't happen overnight. The family fought through financial challenges, health issues, and many bad economic times over the course of decades to get the business on solid ground-now employing more than 400 people. "You Can't Spend Pride" is a must-read for anyone looking to start their own company, having difficulty growing their current company, and most certainly for anyone running a family business. Filled with stories and solid entrepreneurial advice, you'll find yourself immersed in the inspirational history of Mister Kleen as it rises from a home-based business in 1976 to the trusted leader in high-security and commercial cleaning in the Nation's Capital. All proceeds from the sale of this book go to the Cancer Research Institute For a minimum of one year, beginning May 20, 2014, Mister Kleen will donate to the Cancer Research Institute 100 percent of the proceeds ($3.53 for each paperback copy, $2.40 for each Kindle copy) of "You Can't Spend Pride" sold on Amazon.com. Your purchase of this book is making a difference by providing funding to one of the most significant organizations in the fight against cancer. The Cancer Research Institute (CRI) is the world's only nonprofit organization dedicated exclusively to harnessing the immune system's power to conquer all cancers.
