01/11/2019 · November 01, 2019. / Henry Jenkins. British girls' comics were wildly popular throughout the 1950s, 1960s and early 1970s: outselling the boys' titles and circulating millions of copies every week. However by the 1980s circulations had fallen drastically, and very few titles made it out of this decade. The collapse of the industry and the cancellation of popular titles like Misty was likely due to a ...
