chanukah lights everywhere | The Hungry Artist

01/08/2012 · Many years ago, I illustrated Chanukah Lights Everywhere, by Michael J. Rosen. I love the book because it is about Chanukah but also ties the Festival of Lights to other lights in our lives as well as other traditions “sharing a street together”. I set the story in Brooklyn, where we live, because it is so beautiful here in the winter when the sidewalks and buildings are covered in ...

Chanukah’s Over...Now What? - CTeenConnection

Chanukah is my favorite holiday. In my opinion, it is the best Jewish holiday there is.It is a time spent with family, we light the menorah, we eat, we party. On Chanukah, the light of the menorah decorates our windows, our streets, our living rooms. On the eight days of Chanukah, we notice fire everywhere we go to. Even though Chanukah is already over, there is still a lot we can learn ...
