The Immigrant-George Karampas 2011-07-12 George Karampas was a young boy living in a small village in Greece when WWII shattered his simple life. Through his young eyes we see daily life in the village against a backdrop of war, hunger, poverty, and the constant uncertainty of what each day would bring. However, it was the not the Italians, nor the Germans, nor the Greek civil war that brought him to America alone at the age of sixteen. We see how he overcame language, illness and loneliness to live the American dream. His is a story of family love, determination, and perseverance.

Easter Eggs for Anya-Virginia L. Kroll 2007 A Ukrainian Celebration of New Life in Christ Children love coloring Easter eggs, and here's a story to explain one of the origins of this tradition. In early nineteenth-century Ukraine, Christians celebrated Easter by exchanging colorful, hand-decorated pysanky eggs---but with Papa away at the war and Mama struggling to make ends meet, Anya's family was too poor to buy eggs to decorate one year. That is, until Anya discovered an abandoned nest of goose eggs and began planning an Easter surprise for her family. But God had an even better surprise in store, and when the eggs unexpectedly began to hatch, Anya learned what the Easter story teaches: spring brings gifts of myriad new beginnings, just as the risen Christ gave the gift of new life to us all. Each Traditions of Faith book features a story of how significant Christian traditions emerged in cultures around the world, with a note about the origin and history of the tradition, and offers ideas and activities each family can adopt as its own.

Celebrating the Christian Year-Martha Zimmerman 1993 Describes the major Christian holidays and shows how to make each one a family celebration.
