Entertain Your Halloween Party-Tonda Mojarro 2021-05-05 If only a few hours of trick-or-treating, bucketloads of Halloween candy, and halloween costumes for kids were enough to keep your little monsters entertained on Halloween! Sigh-is that really too much to ask? Fear not, parents-we're here to help. We've rounded up some scary-good DIY Halloween games for kids to get ghouls of all ages in the party spirit and make this October 31 even more special, even if it looks a little different this year. Your celebrations will likely be a bit scaled down this year, but even if you're only entertaining your own kids (or if you're donning coronavirus Halloween face masks for a socially distant party), there's still time for fun. In this Entertaining Halloween Party Games book, you will discover: - A hilarious mummy game that only requires inexpensive toilet rolls. - A creepy and fun ghost game that will have kids running and shouting their hearts out. - An ingenious hide and seek game in your own backyard "cemetery." - The Pin the Wart on the Witch Game that will have the kids begging for more. - How you can make the old Bobbing for Apples game even "scarier" and more fun. - How to add a unique twist to Halloween story time so that your kids will never forget it. - ...and Much, Much More!
