05/07/2018 · It's a comic book -- Paper Girls, Vol. 4, written by Brian K. Vaughan and drawn by Cliff Chiang. It's an action story mostly about women, which is nice. And it's pretty smart and twisty so far, though a cynical reader (such as me) may wonder if there are actual answers to the mysteries -- the thing about a time-war is that you can always wipe out one set of explanations with another (better

Following immediately from the events of the last volume, Paper Girls 4 sees the girls catapulted from the prehistoric era to the relative-future of Y2K, which now involves a lot more time-traveling robots. The volume didn't quite grip me the way 3 did, but it's still a perfectly functional adventure. We get a fairly-solid explanation as to the nature of the time travelers' conflict
