The Seaside-Brian Moses 2017-04-27 This anthology of poems, compiled by Brian Moses, contains a mix of light-hearted poems and more serious ones, poems that rhyme and those that don't. There are plenty of good 'read alouds', thumping choruses, and the sort of poems that children can use as models for their own writing. Poetry is a key feature of the new National Curriculum and these fantastic poems are perfectly suited for this. Beautiful illustrations bring each poem vividly to life. Poems include: Are We Nearly There Yet? by Brian Moses; Beach Counting by Tony Mitton; I Do Like to be Beside the Seaside by John A. Glover-Kind; The Seagull's Song by June Crebbin; Seagulls With Everything by Brian Moses; Seaside Sounds by John Foster: A Single Wave by Ian Souter; The 7th Wave by Jan Dean; There's An Ocean in this Seashell by Graham Denton; Shells by Debra Bertulis; Skimming Stones on the Sea by Jane Clarke; Treasure Chest Mystery by Kate Williams; Playtime Pirate (Action Rhyme) by Tony Mitton; Letters in Bottles by Clare Bevan; The Bucket by James Carter; Rock Pool by Matt Goodfellow; The Friendly Octopus by Mike Jubb; Crab by Irene Assiba D'Almeida; Man on the Beach by Joshua Seigal. Read poems compiled by Brian Moses on other topics such as Poems About Animals; Poems About Seasons and Poems About Festivals.

Driftwood Dragons-Tyne Brown 2012-04
Driftwood Dragons is a collection of thirty-four lyrical seaside poems for children. Inspired by the coastline and accompanied by whimsical illustrations, these poems are celebrations of the coastal environment. From an ode to a beach flea to a short conversation with a snail, Driftwood Dragons perfectly captures the beauty, diversity and joy to be found at East Coast beaches.

Encyclopedia of American Literature of the Sea and Great Lakes-Jill B. Gidmark 2001
The sea and Great Lakes have inspired American authors from colonial times to the present to produce enduring literary works. This reference is a comprehensive survey of American sea literature. The alphabetical arrangement of the volume facilitates access to facts about major literary works, authors, characters, themes, vessels, places, and ideas central to American literature of the sea and Great Lakes. While the book includes entries for canonical white male authors such as Herman Melville and Jack London, it also gives considerable attention to women at sea and to ethnically diverse writers, works, and themes. Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and many provide brief bibliographies. In addition, the volume closes with a chronology and a list of works for further reading.

Patchwork of Poems-Moirra Andrew 2000
A collection of poems on popular themes familiar to young children. Photocopiable and illustrated, the poems provide opportunities for class discussion, for poetry writing by the children, and display of their work.

Victorian Poetry Now-Valentine Cunningham 2011-06-03
This book is the definitive guide to Victorian poetry, which its author approaches in the light of modern critical concerns and contemporary contexts. Valentine Cunningham exhibits encyclopedic knowledge of the poetry produced in this period and offers dazzling close readings of a number of well-known poems

Draws on the work of major Victorian poets and their works as well as many of the less well-known poets and poems
Reads poems and poets in the light of both Victorian and modern critical concerns
Places poetry in its personal, aesthetic, historical, and ideological context
Organized in terms of the Victorian anxieties of self, body, and melancholy
Argues that rhyming/repetition is the major formal feature of Victorian poetry
Highlights the Victorian obsession with small subjects in small poems
Shows how Victorian poetry attempts to engage with the modern subject and how its modernity segues into modernism and postmodernism

Sea Star Wishes-Eric Ode 2013
A sumptuously illustrated collection of poems features a coastal sea theme and includes explorations of subjects ranging from the sand and surf to sea urchins and lighthouses. Illustrated by the award-winning artist of Polar Opposites.

Poetry by the Sea-Tara Chase 2013-04-22
A book written to relax with during the "Ups & Downs" of life, knowing in time, we can find a little peace. Taste the salt air and listen to the waves, as you read about calm harbors and view blissful, picturesque shots of seashores with full color art photography for each poem. Travel back in your mind to simpler times gone...to tales of seashores, romance, friendships and travel. These poems are evocative and deep. Life is full of changes, therefore we never stop learning. The ocean can be a very nurturing teacher. I believe there are not always answers, sometimes just a feeling. Sometimes we just have to trust. The selected poems and photos that have made the "cut" exhibit the true sense of where they come from. Father time and Mother Nature are captured and enveloped between these two covers.
