The Beano - Wikipedia

In 1921, D. C. Thomson had first entered the field of boys' story papers with Adventure. The success of this paper led to five further publications, The Rover and The Wizard in 1922, The Vanguard in 1924, The Skipper in 1930 and The Hotspur in 1933. Although The Vanguard folded in 1926, the others were a great triumph and became known as "The Big Five"; they ended Amalgamated Press's near-monopoly of the British comic

From the Archive: Beware of Dennis Art Print 2 - The Beano

Beware of Dennis - Beano Archive art print. Amazing full colour piece taken from the back cover of the first ever Dennis annual, dated 1956. Dennis has subverted the convention of a kid being scared off by an imposing warning sign, by putting his own creative spin on things. This picture demonstrates the evolution of David "Davey" Law's style to portray a more elongated character design.
