Reluctant Bridesmaid-Wendy Davy 2011-03-04 In a small town, uplifting romance tugs at the heartstrings Jordan Harrison no longer trusts relationships, so when her widowed mother is swept away by a handsome, wealthy architect, Jordan fears the hasty engagement will end in disaster. After all, how well can her mother know the guy after only a few months? Intent on saving her mother from certain heartbreak, Jordan races to Breckenridge Manor to delay the wedding, but runs into more than she's bargained for—a handsome, understanding man intent on helping her heal past wounds and open her mind to new possibilities. Known as the man with nerves of steel, Tanner Breckenridge lives up to his reputation, but it doesn't take long for him to discover he has a soft spot for Jordan Harrison, the daughter of his father's future bride. Loyal to his father, but captivated by Jordan, Tanner puts his heart on the line and risks everything for a chance at love.

The Governor Takes a Bride-John Thomas Trutter 1977 Their courtship was national news, and their wedding probably has never had an equal in Illinois history for the attention it received. The inauguration of John R. Tanner twelve days later, on January 11, 1897, seemed only a prolongation of the wedding celebration. And the move into the Executive Mansion was a triumphant conclusion to the courtship and wedding. This cameolike portrait of the Governor and his lovely bride is remarkable for the picture of an era it creates. It was a brief period, for Tanner died in 1901, shortly after his term of office ended, but he and Cora English Tanner continue to occupy a unique place in Illinois history.

Salad Feasts-Jessica Elliott Dennison 2018-07-12 The wonderful thing about making a salad is that it's a relaxed, stress-free way of cooking, with endless possibilities for customisation. By simply adding in a handful of toasted nuts, something sweet like sultanas, a few spoonfuls of chewy grains like barley or spelt, then a crumbling of cheese; a boring salad can start to look a lot more like dinner. In Salad Feasts, Jessica Elliott Dennison guides you through the art of creating the perfect meal with over 60 foolproof recipes that turn salads into flavour-packed, midweek meals. From a quick, 10-minute Radicchio, Stilton and Pear salad, to the slow cooked Anchovy Roast Peppers with Smoky Tomato Beans, each recipe provides alternative substitute ingredients that are designed to make your salad-making flexible and easy, no matter the season. Including feasting menus to elevate your salads into occasion-worthy spreads, as well as a basic recipe formula to guide you, these are easy-to-assemble, delicious meals that transform ordinary salads into extraordinary feasts.
