The Eye of the North: 1: Amazon.co.uk: O'Hart, Sinéad: Books

The Eye of The North is a brilliant story combining elements of steam punk, Norse mythology and environmentalism with good old fashioned adventure. I loved the characters in this book. Emmeline is a believable hero you can really root for, and her allies - Thing, Igimaq, Meadowmane and The White Flower gang - provide a wonderfully entertaining supporting cast.

Review: The Eye of the North - Book Craic

09/04/2021 · These two are incredibly courageous, tenacious and face their fears head-on. The Eye of the North is a heart-pounding rollercoaster of an adventure: exhilarating, action-packed and completely and utterly fantastic. I cannot recommend this one highly enough. I am now ridiculously excited to read the prequel, Skyborn.

My "theory" on " who built the Eye of the North". : Guildwars2

The Eye of the North looms over the land, an imposing structure of indeterminate origin. It is not human, dwarven, or asuran in construction, although it resembles the architecture of Arah and other godly sites. Norn who settled the Far Shiverpeaks first "discovered" the Eye. They sensed something unnatural about its construction, and
